Direct Market Ordering Catalog for Products Shipping in April and Beyond

Hello comic retailers and fans!

Welcome to PRH Panels, the Penguin Random House catalog for the Direct Market, highlighting the incredible graphic novels, East Asian comics, games, and more that debut every month. We can't wait for you to find the next story to inspire and entertain you, and the latest games and gifts to bring you together.

In the category spotlight section, we're celebrating Arab American Heritage Month in April. Check out our recommendations for titles by and about Arab American creators and characters like, Huda F Cares?, I Was Their American Dream, and Shubeik Lubeik. Additionally, we have a list of essential titles to pick up in anticipation of Marvel's Thunderbolts* film. Stock up on Thunderbolts: The Saga of Yelena Belova, Thunderbolts: Worldstrike, Captain America: The Winter Soldier [Marvel Premier Collection], and more before the film releases on May 2nd, 2025. Also, as a special resource in this edition of Panels, we've put together a guide to funny titles across all formats to celebrate April Fool's Day. Check out our recommendations on hilarious graphic novels, kids & YA titles, manga, humorous how-to books, witty memoirs, and funny activities & games.

This month, we are featuring Dark Horse's comic Los Monstruos #1. Los Monstruos is entirely populated with classic monsters from movies and folklore. Vampires, Man-Monsters, Werewolves, Mummies, and many other fantastic creatures. Perry Cutter, werewolf P.I., has just foiled a gill-man kidnapping when another case falls into his lap. The case: finding a missing vampiress, seems simple enough, until Perry realizes he must walk a razor's edge between crime-boss and pyramid casino owner Ramses and the hardboiled team of vampire cops known as the Night Shift.

In our Graphic Novels section, we're spotlighting Craig Thompson's Ginseng Roots. From the celebrated author of Blankets and Habibi comes a new graphic memoir exploring the class divide, childhood labor, family, and our globalized world—all centered on Wisconsin's ginseng farming industry. Pantheon is offering a special promo to retailers who order Ginseng Roots by its FOC date, 3/31/2025. Promo eligible stores who order a minimum of 5 units of the book will receive a matching quantity of signed bookplates by Thompson. There is no need to sign up for this promo.

Our Kids & YA spotlight this month is on Junie B. Jones and the Stupid Smelly Bus: The Graphic Novel. After more than 30 years as a beloved New York Times bestselling favorite, the world's funniest kindergartner is coming to graphic novels—with brand-new, full-color adaptations. It's Junie B.'s first day of kindergarten! But she's afraid of the school bus. Can she overcome her fears, or will she be stuck at school forever?

In our East Asian Comics section, we're spotlighting Cat + Crazy Volume 1, a silly but sincere look at humans who adore cats—and seek to learn more about these mysterious creatures. Cat + Crazy is another impressive series from Harvey Award-nominated manga creator Wataru Nadatani (Cat + Gamer)!

Our Prose section also returns this month with a spotlight on Marvel: Black Panther: The Intergalactic Empire of Wakanda. Across the galaxy, the Black Panther answers the call of rebellion in this thrilling adaptation of Ta-Nehisi Coates's graphic novel, The Intergalactic Empire of Wakanda. This novel will be Random House World's first straight adaptation of a Marvel comics run, expanding an iconic story arc and creating an easy on ramp for new readers.

And lastly, in our Gifts and Games section we are featuring everyone's favorite dog Bluey in Bluey: Cheese and Crackers: A Coloring Book. Color in a pavlova, a delicious curry quest, a relaxing BBQ, and more. This coloring book has over 32 pages packed with yummy moments featuring Bluey, Bingo, Mum, and Dad. Perfect for rainy days, road trips, and more!

All this and much, much more can be found in this month's PRH Panels. Don't hesitate to explore this catalog and find the perfect new book! As always, retailers who have any questions about the ordering process or would like to open an account with PRH, are encouraged to email us at comickmarketUS@penguinrandomhouse.com.

Wishing you the very best,

The time is the 1950s and the place is a very unique American city. Los Monstruos is entirely populated with classic monsters from movies and folklore. Vampires, Man-Monsters, Werewolves, Mummies, and many other fantastic creatures. Perry Cutter, werewolf P.I., has just foiled a gill-man kidnapping when another case falls into his lap. The case: finding a missing vampiress, seems simple enough, until Perry realizes he must walk a razor's edge between crime-boss and pyramid casino owner Ramses and the hardboiled team of vampire cops known as the Night Shift. Perry is reminded, yet again, that nothing in this city is simple. Come visit Los Monstruos, a wild, wonderful city full of monsters and mystery.

Ginseng Roots

A Memoir

Written by CRAIG THOMPSON

“A sweeping story, gorgeously drawn and beautifully told—this is Craig Thompson’s masterpiece.”

—Joe Sacco, author of Palestine and Paying the Land

When Blankets first published in 2003, Craig Thompson’s seminal memoir about first love and faith lost in rural Wisconsin debuted to rapturous acclaim. The winner of two Eisner and three Harvey Awards, it is to this day considered one of the all-time great works of graphic storytelling. Now, in Craig’s long-awaited return to the autobiographical form, comes the story that Blankets left out.

Ginseng Roots follows Craig and his siblings, who spent the summers of their youth weeding and harvesting rows of coveted American ginseng on rural Wisconsin farms for one dollar an hour. In his trademark breathtaking pen-and-ink work, Craig interweaves this lost youth with the 300-year-old history of the global ginseng trade and the many lives it has tied together—from ginseng hunters in ancient China, to industrial farmers and migrant harvesters in the American Midwest, to his own family still grappling with the aftershocks of the bitter past.

Stretching from Marathon, Wisconsin, to Northeast China, Ginseng Roots charts the rise of industrial agriculture, the decline of American labor, and the search for a sense of home in a rapidly changing world.

From award-winning novelist Paul Auster comes the graphic adaptation of his deeply beloved series, The New York Trilogy, a postmodern take on detective and noir fiction.

Paul Auster's The New York Trilogy

City of Glass, Ghosts,
The Locked Room

Written by PAUL AUSTER;
Illustrated by PAUL KARASIK,
LORENZO MATTOTTI and
DAVID MAZZUCHELLI

In 1994, Paul Auster's City of Glass was adapted into a graphic novel and became an immediate cult classic, published in over 30 editions worldwide, excerpted in The Norton Anthology of Postmodern Fiction. But City of Glass was only the first novel in a series of books, Auster's acclaimed New York Trilogy, and graphic novel readers have been waiting for years for the other two tales to be translated into comics.

Now the wait is over.

Paul Karasik, the mastermind behind the three adaptations, art directed all three books. City of Glass is illustrated by the award-winning cartoonist David Mazzucchelli, the second volume, Ghosts, is illustrated by New Yorker cover artist, Lorenzo Mattotti, and The Locked Room is adapted and drawn by Karasik himself. These adaptations take Auster's sophisticated wordplay and translate it into comicsplay: both highbrow and lowbrow and immensely fun reading.

Misery of Love

Written by YVAN ALAGBÉ;
Translated by DONALD NICHOLSON-SMITH

Colonial history haunts this stunning, spectral-looking graphic novel, a spiritual sequel to the author's Yellow Negroes and Other Imaginary Creatures.

The book focuses on the dream-like memories of a woman named Clare, who is spending time with her family for her grandfather's funeral. Alagbé shifts between narratives of the family, all haunted by the legacy of France's colonial subjugation of Africa.

Alagbé works in stormy grayscale washes, using comics, as he puts it, as "a sacred dimension which celebrates, questions and perpetuates life.... I believe that life is not damnation but grace."

This is another ambitious, devastating masterpiece from one of France's best contemporary cartoonists.

Remember Us to Life

A Graphic Memoir

Written by JOANNA RUBIN DRANGER

WINNER OF THE NORDIC COUNCIL
LITERATURE PRIZE

Available for the first time in English: a moving and masterful graphic memoir exploring one woman's search for identity as she slowly uncovers the truth of how her Jewish relatives “disappeared” during World War II.

Told through a genre-defying blend of illustrations, photography, and found objects, Remember Us to Life chronicles Joanna Rubin Dranger's investigation into her Jewish family's history, spanning time, space, and three continents in search of her lost relatives.

Following in the tradition of classics such as Art Spiegelman's Maus and Marjane Satrapi's Persepolis, Remember Us to Life is a thought-provoking exploration of grief, alienation, and reclamation of one's history.

SUYI DAVIES OKUNGBOWA

Lost amongst unfamiliar stars, a man finds himself trapped in an imperial mining camp—one of the many Nameless violated by the Empire. The only thing he does know, in his bones, is that he must fight the oppression that binds him and the others around him. It is that will to fight that leads him to the Maroons, a band of rebels, determined to shatter the Empire. Quickly, the man proves his worth, and the Maroons bestow on the man a title of hope, promise, and responsibility: T'Challa.

Could this be the true T'Challa of old, the Avenger? T'Challa must decide if he will embrace a future of responsibility as their savior—or pursue the mystery of his true past.
