All his life, Asahi has worked hard to become an idol, even hiding his status as an omega. His dream finally seems within reach when he's chosen as a member of the boy band B-Marks — but there's just one catch: one of the other band members, Madoka, is an alpha, and their animal instincts immediately draw them together.

Asahi isn't about to let some pesky hormonal urges distract him from his idol duties, though! He doesn't want to let his fanbase down by becoming involved with one of his band mates. However, Madoka isn't the rough and arrogant alpha he expects, and their initial attraction soon becomes something more...
